EDUCATION AND ENRICHMENT

Introduction

The class introduces a safe and comfortable environment for your child to learn the necessary skills needed for public speaking through enriched activities and peer critiques. Leadership for Life sharpens your child's writing skills, along with building confidence to participate in debates, interviews and formally speaking in public settings.

What You Need

- 1 notebook and a good attitude
- An enthusiastic attitude

Objectives

- Activities to teach public speaking skills
- Building self-confidence and relationships with peers
- Speech writing and presentation planning
- Tone of voice and importance of choosing the right vocabulary
- Body Language

These classes are held year-round in 90-minute sessions with a low student to teacher ratio in order to best serve your student and assure adequate personal attention. Leadership For Life classes are recommended for grades K-12. Tuition is payable every 12-week trimester.
